

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

KENYA AND EAST AFRICA

TO: Prospective Offerors
DATE: February 23, 2017
SUBJECT: Audio Recording of: USAID/KEA Pre-solicitation Conference - Kenya Investment Mechanism (KIM), held on Tuesday, February 21, 2017, from 4.00pm to 5.00pm Nairobi, Kenya local time.
SOLICITATION NO.: SOL-615-17-000006

Dear Prospective Offerors:

Below please find a link to the audio recording and PowerPoint of the subject Pre-Solicitation Conference. The conference was held via Webinar on February 21, 2017. You will need the latest version of Adobe Connect to access the audio.

Please note that approximately the first 30 seconds of the conference was not captured by the recording. During that time the host introduced herself and fellow presenter Mark Carrato, and restated the purpose of the pre-solicitation conference, as it was included in the original announcement for this event.

Please further note that:

- USAID welcomes additional comments on the Draft Statement of Objectives (SOO) from prospective offerors going forward until the RFP is finalized. While we will not be taking additional questions at this time, comments on the draft continue to be welcome. Any such comments can be submitted to: wkiragu@usaid.gov with a copy to cbertolin@usaid.gov.
- Upon release of the subject Request for Proposals (RFP), there will be an opportunity for potential offerors to ask questions regarding the solicitation during the standard question period allotted. Per standard practice, all questions and answers (Q&A) will be made public soon thereafter via Amendment No.1 to the RFP. Specific instructions relating to this will be contained in the RFP. Questions not answered during the pre-solicitation conference can be submitted at that time.
